

SCOBIE&JUNOR

BONE PROTECTION

SHANK CAPS | RIB TRAYS | WAXED CLOTH

Introduction

With over half a century of experience in the manufacturing of boneguard solutions, Scobie and Junor offer a variety of products to suit your business.

We have a huge selection of shank caps, trays and cloths to fit all cuts of meat and all production methods. Our ranges are tested and verified to the highest industry standards and come with a guarantee of quality and reliability.

Product Features

Reduced leakers

Targeted protection reduces the chance of puncture and associated rework or product loss.

Easy to Use

Simply place over the shank end. Use straight from the box or from our one hand only dispensers.

Simple Packaging

Supplied in a lined box, perfect for meat plants. Simply open the box, lift out the liner and take straight into production.

Increase Profit

Fewer leakers means less rework, fewer returns, not to mention less packaging: all leading to increased profit!

Thermoformed Products

Beef

For beef

Pork

They are flexible, ensuring no trapped air on vacuuming preventing "black foot" common with injection moulded alternatives.

Lamb

Made from polyethylene, they're clean and won't break down when wet like paper alternatives.

Prevent Bacteria

They don't absorb moisture and don't encourage bacterial growth.

Recycle

They are recyclable so don't cost the earth!

BRC Accredited

Made in Scotland in a BRC accredited plant, a must for the food industry.

Consistent Tare

Each cap is identical in weight, unlike conventional hand cut bone guard. Ideal when you need a consistent tare weight.

Design

Expert Design

Designed specifically for shank bone protection, by the experts in New Zealand.

Clearly Better

Clear when vacuumed, improving product appearance.

Gold Available

Also available in gold for visual impact on retail products.

Protection Choice

280mu for standard applications and 440mu for extra sharp bones.

Fluted

Fluted for variable sized shanks. Helps prevent the cap falling off.

Extended

Extended for lamb shoulders or easy carve gammons.

Our Gammon Caps are a great example of how Scobie & Junor keep the customer at the centre of our product development.
